⊕ The mission of Practical Ecommerce is to publish independent articles, commentary, and instruction to help ecommerce merchants. For companies that sell products and services to that audience, we offer five online advertising opportunities. They are: Sponsored Seminars, Display Ads, Email Newsletter Ads, Dedicated Email Drops, and Brand Posts.

SPONSORED ONLINE SEMINARS

Practical Ecommerce produces online, educational seminars to help ecommerce merchants better understand a topic that will help their business. We promote these seminars on our site, in our newsletter, in our social media channels, and in dedicated drops to our email subscribers. Seminar presentations are prerecorded and aired during the actual event. Only the question-and-answer segment is live.

We introduce the sponsor at the outset of the presentation and allocate three minutes at the end for the sponsor to explain its products and services.

Qualified sponsors can participate — if they choose — in the Q&A segment. Sponsors receive each registrant's name, email address, title, telephone number, and company affiliation.

$40
Per Lead, $6,400 cap

Practical Ecommerce's seminars address topics of interest to our sponsors, who select the topics in collaboration with Practical Ecommerce. Our editorial staff then plans and presents those topics in an independent, transparent manner. The duration of seminars varies. Most last roughly 30 minutes — 20 minutes for our presentation, three minutes for the sponsor's segment, and roughly seven minutes for the live question-and-answer period.

DEDICATED EMAIL DROPS

Practical Ecommerce publishes two promotional email drops per week, wherein each drop is dedicated to a single advertiser. These dedicated drops are sent to subscribers of EcommerceNotes. The content or offer of each drop must be related to ecommerce merchants, and cannot include claims or descriptions that will, in Practical Ecommerce's view, trigger excessive unsubscribes, complaints, or spam notifications, or will otherwise compromise our editorial integrity.

Email subject lines are based on Practical Ecommerce's approval, and can include up to 45 characters, with no exclamation points or special characters, and must otherwise describe the offer in a straightforward manner. ## BRAND POSTS

Brand Posts consist of articles created or commissioned by advertisers in collaboration with Practical Ecommerce. Brand Posts enable advertisers to expose their leadership, expertise, products, and services to a wide audience of ecommerce professionals.

Practical Ecommerce publishes up to six Brand Posts concurrently. Each post appears on the site for 12 weeks and is clearly labeled "Sponsored," "From Our Advertisers," or similar verbiage. Each post resides on its own page, with no competing sidebars or advertisements. The maximum length of each Brand Post is 1,500 words plus optional images, infographics, and videos.

BRAND POST

$1,890
Per Month for 3 Months
$5,670 total

$2,390
For 1 Month

Brand Posts are promoted to visitors of PracticalEcommerce.com on the home page, in right sidebars on all article pages, and in internal site search results. Each of those promotions — "Promotional Impressions" — consists of the advertiser's name and the post's headline and custom image, all of which link to the actual Brand Post.

Each Brand Post receives no less than 300,000 Promotional Impressions per month.

Additionally, the headline and custom image of all Brand Posts appear in Practical Ecommerce's email newsletter once per month. Each Brand Post also receives monthly entries to Practical Ecommerce's principal social media sites: Twitter, Facebook, and LinkedIn. Brand Posts are indexed by Google, Bing, and other search engines and appear in relevant search results for each.

Brand Posts follow guidelines set forth by Google, Interactive Advertising Bureau, and other reputable organizations for transparency and disclosure. Links within Brand Posts are "nofollow" and do not, therefore, transfer PracticalEcommerce.com's PageRank or other authority signals.

The content of Brand Posts expresses the opinions of advertisers, who can compose their own Brand Posts or, alternatively, Practical Ecommerce can compose on advertisers' behalf. Regardless, the content does not necessarily reflect the views of Practical Ecommerce and it cannot undermine our editorial integrity and standing.

VOLUME DISCOUNTS

Advertisers receive discounts based on the amount of a single contract, as follows.

Contract Amount	Discount

DISPLAY AD SPECIFICATIONS

Acceptable display ad file formats are JPEG, PNG, GIF, and SWF, with a maximum file size of 40KB. Animated GIF and Flash ads are limited to 30 seconds for the animation. Animated GIFs must have a minimum of 4 seconds per frame. Flash ad frame rate cannot exceed 45 frames per second.

All interaction must be user initiated. For example, ads utilizing audio must only play the audio when a user clicks to hear it (not mouse-over), and must be accompanied by an obvious "OFF" button to end the audio. The same rule applies for any video, in that the video must not play unless a user initiates it, and it must be accompanied by an obvious "STOP" button to halt the video
